ISSUE XXXIX - IV YADAVINDRA PUBLIC SCHOOL, SAS NAGAR (MOHALI)

MARCH, 2023

EDITORIAL

Someone rightly said, "I believe there is power in words, power in asserting our existence, our experience, our lives, through words." We all know that you, the readers, are the real carriers of the flame.

The Oracle's 40th issue marks my final one as its Editor-in-Chief. In my capacity as a former member of the Editorial Board, I have finished over 15 issues of the journal. By the time you read this digital issue, a new Editor-in-Chief will have taken the helm for his or her debut issue.

Stories or articles were only told in black and white words and photographs when I joined YPS in 2011. The Editorial Board was then aware of the work that went into the distribution, printing, and paper. We swam into the unknown twelve years later. We still tell stories using text and images, but the words are now created using digital software, like 'Canva'. We were apprised of both motionless and moving images. To make this magazine available to readers worldwide, we worked on virtual data, images, and combinations of other aspects.

As I combed through fading memorabilia and emptied my shelves, I reflected on what The Oracle is and what it means to be its Editor-in-Chief. Editors are very influential people. They determine who has a voice and who doesn't. Yet I've never wanted this publication to be just about me; instead, I believe that it should reflect the beliefs, ideals, and perspectives of all Yadavindrians.

This magazine is in good shape; it has unmatched reach, power, and resources. By the time you receive my message, I would have left school. I deeply appreciate this position and the opportunity it offered me to help grow as a person. It has equipped me with the knowledge and abilities that will assist me in my coming future as I progress towards O.P. Jindal University this year. I will be studying Criminology and Criminal Justice besides continuing to find my way in the writing columns of their magazines.

To say that I appreciate the editorial team's ideas, time and zeal is an understatement. My fantastic crew has constantly delivered outstanding work for the magazine, and I am grateful to them. Their efforts are priceless and they have tremendous talent. I am pleased to assure you that The Oracle will be in good hands. Throughout the last year, I've thought about what I wanted this letter to say and I have written numerous versions of it in my brain off and on. But what I keep thinking about is that moment in my life, a little more than a decade ago, and how inexperienced I was then.

Finally, I would like to conclude by saying a very big "thank you" in this final moment.

This year, the YPS Association celebrated 75 years of the establishment of YPS, Patiala. The genesis of YPS, as a matter of fact, lies in the Aitchison College, Lahore (the only Public School in Pre-Partition Punjab), which is closely related to, bears a contrast to, and has to play a great role in making of YPS Patiala. Since the establishment of YPS Mohali in 1979, both the sister schools have shared close relations in various sports and co-curricular activities.

BIDDING ADIEU!

Batch of 2022-23

People come and go, but the memories associated with them never leave. These memories then take different forms, becoming smiles, tears, laughter, and a reason to love our life's journey and consider it worthwhile. As this session comes to an end while signifying the beginning of a new expedition, on behalf of the Editorial Team we bid adieu to the batch of 2022-23 and wish them the very best for their life ahead. YPS would always cherish their memories and achievements, besides hoping that they too, would reminiscence their time and learnings here. May they accomplish what they desire. They will be greatly missed.

ANNUAL FUNCTIONS

Kinder Artists' Day

"Teachers who love teaching TEACH CHILDREN to love learning"

We teach children to dream, desire and wish. We inspire them to believe in themselves to achieve. This year, the Kindergarten wing witnessed the spectacle of Kinder Artists' day, Rhythmic movement and the Annual day celebration, all on the same day.

Kindergarteners performed with unparalleled zeal and vigour, and it was a delight to see them dressed in most colour-coordinated attires complementing each other. The entire KG wing was beautifully decorated and captured the attention of all those present and took them through the odyssey from Space to Jungles, explicitly characterised. The theme of the show was a perfect blend of Nature at its best in the inner space and the outer space. It focussed on the learning objectives of inculcating stage confidence, developing social skills and enhancing gross motor skills.

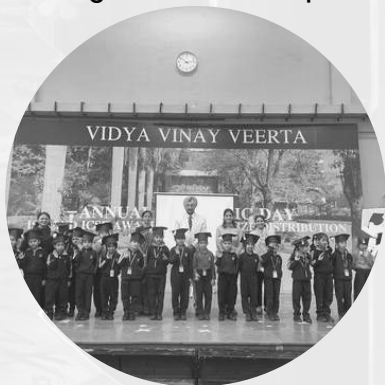

Kindergarten Wing hosted a display of art and craft work, paintings and worksheets done by children during the academic session. Students joyfully exhibited their creativity and took a lot of pride in it.

Graduation Day

"You're off to great places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting, so... get on your way!"

The Kindergarten Wing celebrated its first ever Graduation Ceremony in the academic hall. Children of UKG, donning their academic caps, were ecstatic for the ceremony. LKG bid a thundering adieu to their wing-mates with a melodious choir, singing and mind-blowing dance performances. It was a bag full of mixed emotions for UKG as they did not want to leave their favourite teachers and wing.

Visual and Performing Arts Exhibition

The Visual and Performing Arts exhibition was held on 17th February 2023. The corridors of Junior Wing came alive and wore a festive look with beautiful display of art, handicraft items, things crafted with clay and mouth-watering delicacies by our young Yadavindrians. The assembly area reverberated with their energetic and mesmerising performances like Bhangra beats and foot-tapping Zumba. The graceful moves of classical dance and the fluid movements of rhythmic yoga regaled the audience and left them spellbound. Bri-Books :

Appreciation is a wonderful thing. It makes what is excellent in others, belong to us as well. Let us take this moment to appreciate and motivate the budding 'young' writers from our school. In Punjab 95% of schools have successfully got over 90% of their students to publish their books for the National Young Authors Fair. Out of 64 students of our school who registered, 34 authors had their books published.

Forests

Deep in the forests, once I was travelling
Surrounded by lush green trees and plantings
It seemed nature was playing, which was so astonishing
I never felt before, the breeze which was flowing
The fragrance of soil, the water, the nature around,
was just surprising!

I found myself talking to flowers
Birds coming near when I gazed at the stars
Night was the time when I walked little more
Having fun bare footed as I just wanted to explore
Never did I feel so good as I was singing so loud
That was the time I heard little sound

What was it? Oh, just cute little sprinkles, showered by the cloud!
Feelings were mesmerising and so was time
I felt like a queen 'cause earth was the gift'
I owned with pride

Birds, animals and beautiful fauna was around
So vast was the sight and horizon was close
A few steps further was the moon,
and dawn had the sun next door,
I touched the stars and never felt bored

A sudden loud noise took me out of greens
The moon, the sun, the birds were seen
Just going away from my hands,
and feelings went lean,
Noise, dust everywhere
I even could not breathe
Where was the forests I had just been?

I woke up, oh!
Were these just my dreams?
I was up, as usual but deep as forests
Not of the nature,
but surrounded by city screams.

My Grandma

My granny is the best,
If you do not believe it, you can test.
A yummy cake she can bake,
A lot of lip – smacking delicacies she can make.
She is very funny,
Her voice is sweet as honey.
She always has a smiling face,
To make her happy there are many ways.
When she reads me a story book,
It gets so interesting that it keeps me hooked.
Her hands and face are wrinkled,
But in her eyes, there is always a twinkle.
She is the sweetest person I've ever met,
When I see her, I feel no regret.
When she strokes my head,
I feel so happy and hit my bed.
She really is the best person in the world,
I'm saying the truth, I'll give you my word!!

My experience at the National tournament

This year is very special for me because for the first time I went to the States Tournament Roller Hockey and won a silver medal and the first National tournament which was held in Bengaluru and again won silver. It was a new experience and playing with a team is another good experience. From preparation to reaching finals every part had a different story to tell. We played a total of seven matches in which we won six and everytime we used to celebrate with all the team and coaches and parents present there I really enjoyed every bit of each moment and being the youngest of all in my team everyone was very proud of me. I am fully motivated to participate every year and bring glory.

A Pen

This marvellous pen that I pick
Has a nib so fine
and such a grand design
and colours so aesthetic.

The golden cap of this pen gleams like a candle lit
It gets into my hands with such grace
and its beauty the carvings embrace
My name is beautifully engraved on it

This pen could leave a mark
But what is written makes the difference!
Is it something that carries a beautiful fragrance?
Or something that would make the world so dark?

I could write something so positive and this pen would leave a tremendous effect
The world would not simply neglect
If I write of something destructive

This pen holds such great power
But it's of no use, if it writes a hurtful thing
So use it wisely, for the end it may bring or bring the blessings of laughter.

Noise

It rattles your mind,
It makes your ability to think blind.
It causes you stress,
It leads to emotional distress.
It lowers your productivity,
It is abundant in a city.
It lowers your attention,
It gives you tension.
It makes you angry,
So you are never happy.
It gives you sleeping disorders,
So you are never in order.
It gives you anxiety,
It lowers your position in society.
It hampers your ability to learn,
It makes your brain burn.
It originates from your voice,
So do not make noise.
If you want to succeed,
Speak less and pay heed.
